I am really afraid of fear itself. I know it can sound weird but this is what I feel.

First of all, fear is terrible, it makes you feel bad, not only in your mind but also physically, your stomach aches, your heart beats extremely fast, even you can faint. Secondly, when you lose your confidence, fear is a constant in your life, you are afraid of everything, and you think that every situation is a risky one.

On the other hand, I try to avoid feeling that way and I also try to relax when I am stressed or I feel anxious.

When you are afraid of fear you feel it a lot of time and also you suffer from apprehension, and it is like a ball which is bigger all the time.

People say that fear is an irrational feeling, but it is also part of human nature.

Question 5

En este ejercicio se propone una solución, pero no es la única posible

Nowadays lots of young people decide to go abroad to try to find a job. But earning a living while you are living abroad is not easy.

First of all I think that unemployment in Spain is a serious problema of this society, people is really concerned and worried about this situation and governments or politicians do not do enough to solve it. It is a huge problema specially for people who suffer this situation.

Measures must be taken to fix this terrible issue. Secondly, I believe that, in Spain, a lot of rights have been lost; in many companies, owners and bosses offer Jobs with terrible conditions because al lof them are capitalising on the situation. In spite of the fact that earning a living in Spain is difficult, it is true that trying to live abroad is not easy either, the Jobs they offer are not good Jobs or the best conditions, so, sometimes, when people go abroad, they find themselves stuck in routines that are not what they expected. Long hours, bad salaries are two of the most common problems of Spanish workers who are living abroad. However, they have a job. A job is more than a lot for a lot of people living in Spain and trying to fin dan opportunity.

To sump up, If I were you I would think twice before going t olive to other country, but if you do not find a job, you should give it a try.
